Friday 23rd February

Additional INSET day

Dear parents,

We have identified an important need for some specific staff training relating to the safeguarding of our pupils and staff members. In order for all staff to complete this training, there will be an additional INSET day on Friday 8 March. I hope that providing two weeks' notice will give ample opportunities for arrangements regarding childcare where appropriate.

The mock exam timetable for Y11 will not be affected; we have no mock exams scheduled on that day. My recommendation is that Y11 students use this as an excellent opportunity for further revision.

We will make appropriate arrangements with boating providers to return Mundesley students home on the afternoon of Thursday 7 March.

Thank you for your ongoing support.

Rachel Gibb
