Primary Key Information and Guidance

Dear Parents,

To support you and your child, we have drawn together the information below as a checklist and guide.

We are working towards confirming the exact dates so those outlined below are subject to change if needed. We will inform you of any changes as quickly as possible. All the events below are fully inclusive and appropriate adjustments will be made accordingly by liaising with students and parents.

What	When and Where	Responsibility	Outcome
Parent Meeting 1	Week commencing 17 November 2025	All teachers	A valued opportunity to come together and talk about your child's learning, wellbeing, and personal development.
Parent Meeting 2	Week commencing 13 March 2026
Primary End of Year Reports	Week commencing 17 July 2026	All teachers	The report offers a clear summary of your child's learning, growth, and contribution to school life - celebrating achievements and reflecting on their development across the year and valuable next steps in key areas.

Your feedback throughout this year on reports and assessments is really important and we welcome the communications.

Yours faithfully,

Emily Banfield

Senior Assistant Head: Achievement & Standards
